

Justice is when we get what we deserve.

Mercy is when we do not get what we deserve.

Grace is when we get what we do not deserve.

We fill our cups with many things and whatever is in there is going to spill out when someone bumps into us. If someone bumped into you today, what would spill out? What would happen if your cup was filled with grace?

This is what God's grace looks like:

People are imperfect: "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" Romans 3:23

"If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us." 1 John 1:8

God is perfect: "He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just.

A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he." Deuteronomy 32:4

Jesus chose to live and die to reconcile us (imperfect) to God (perfect) so we can enjoy a relationship with our creator: "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." John 3:16

Today, how are you being affected by God's grace?

How are you giving grace to others?
